The collections include:
- Links to author and illustrator websites
- Audio recordings of authors pronouncing and telling stories about their names
- Book discussion and activity guides
- Audio booktalks with authors, illustrators, and professional narrators
- Author interviews in video, audio, and written formats

Use these online tools to enhance...

Staff Development. Prepare for the summer by learning more about featured authors and books.

Programming. Integrate ready-to-use activities and audio book talks to round out your sessions.

Book Groups. Stimulate conversation with book guides and novel units.

Technology Integration. Enable patrons and staff to listen online to brief performances of books, watch authors in their studios, and access authoritative Web-based material about the featured books and authors.

TeachingBooks.net is provided to all Wisconsin schools, libraries, and residents through BadgerLink, a project of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI), Division for Libraries, Technology, and Community Learning.
